

Vast choices under one roof

LIFE is about choices. If you have ambitions, Facon Education Fair 2010 will inspire you with its choices. More than 600 globally recognised and award-winning institutions of higher learning from Malaysia and abroad will congregate as the Facon Education roadshow, to showcase their offerings.

Kicking off last weekend at Johor Bahru, Miri, Kuching and Sibul, the fair will cover 11 towns all over the country. The schedule for the upcoming shows is as follows:

Since its inception in 1990, the Facon Education Fair has been visited by millions of visitors. Those interested to complete their higher education locally will be interested to know that all major local institutions of higher learning will be at the fair. This event will provide visitors a superb opportunity to meet all the big boys, under one roof.

These include Advance Tertiary College (ATC), APIIT/UCTI, Berjaya University College of Hospitality, International Medical University (IMU), INTI University College, KLMU, KLIUC, MAHSA University College, Masterskill University College Of Health Sciences, MSU and PTPL, SEGi University College, Sunway University College, Taylor's University College, the University of Nottingham, UCSI University, Universiti Tunku Abdul Rahman, Universiti Malaya, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia and Universiti Teknologi Malaysia.

Visitors can meet with representatives from internationally renowned institutions from Australia, France, India, Indonesia, Korea, Ukraine, UK, Russia, and Singapore, making it the most comprehensive on further education. The information gathered will help be useful in decision making.

At the Kuala Lumpur venue, there will be three groups of institutions from China, Japan and Taiwan. The China group will also be at the Malacca venue.

Visitors to the Facon Education Fair will be pampered with options of courses ranging from Design to IT, Business, Law, Medicine, Mass Communications, Engineering, Sciences, Accounting, Finance, Healthcare, and Baking and Culinary. Many of these programmes do not only emphasize academic excellence but also give emphasis on work experience and

TURN TO PAGE 17 ►

Peninsula Malaysia		Opening hours: 11am - 6pm
Alor Setar	: Dec 14	Holiday Villa Hotel
Penang	: Dec 15	Traders Hotel
Ipoh	: Dec 16	Syuen Hotel
K. Lumpur	: Dec 18 & 19	PWTC
Malacca	: Dec 20	Equatorial Hotel
East Malaysia		Opening hours: 12 noon - 4pm
Sandakan	: Dec 17	Sandakan Hotel
K. Kinabalu	: Dec 18	The Pacific Sutera, Sutera Harbour Resort
Tawau	Dec 19	MB Hotel

Vast choices under one roof

► FROM PAGE 15

communication skills, thus boosting students' employability. For working adults who wish to pursue postgraduate programmes, there is a wide range to choose from.

A scholarship information booth will be set up at the Kuala Lumpur and Johor Baru venues. The Public Services Department (PSD) will also be at the fair to disseminate information on scholarship and study loan.

At the Kuala Lumpur and Johor Baru venues, visitors are invited to attend a series of presentations by exhibitors of their programmes, institutions and its facilities. Admission is free but seats are limited. Visitors are advised to bring their result slips and relevant documents.

Don't miss the chance to win yourself a smartphone! (Peninsular Malaysia): The organisers have appointed DiGi as the official telco sponsor. For the first time, visitors who register with any institution at the fair will stand a chance to win a BlackBerry smartphone. Visitors who register prepaid packages with DiGi during the fair are entitled to join a lucky draw to win free airtime (DiGi-DiGi). For details, please visit the DiGi booths or go to www.faconex.com.

The Facon Education Fair provides students with 600 institutions under one roof.