

Education fair to feature prestigious universities

Eric Edward

MIRI: CT Academic Services's 'GO Study CT Education Fair' tomorrow (June 15) will feature several prestigious universities.

These institutions have ongoing intakes throughout the year and still accept students from last year's Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia (SPM), Sijil Tinggi Persekolahan Malaysia (STPM), A levels and other qualifications.

Many of these institutions also have scholarships and financial aid for high achievers.

Admission is free to the fair at Imperial Palace Hotel from 2pm to 6pm.

Curtin University Sarawak is one of the top Australian university branches in Malaysia with courses in Engineering and Science, Commerce and Mass Communication.

The university has a Foundation Programme intake for SPM students on Aug 6 and degree intake on July 30.

Students who enrol before next month can get an early bird discount of RM200 for tuition fees. July intake students also enjoy a waiver of the registration fee, student deposit and insurance.

Swinburne University of Technology offers Engineering, Business, Science, Information Technology and Design courses in Kuching.

The Australian branch campus has financial aid programmes where Bumiputera students who go for the Foundation in Engineering can get a 50 per cent discount and a Yayasan Sarawak loan for the rest of the fees, with similar aid available for diploma programmes.

KDU University College offers internally developed certificate and diploma courses, as well as bachelor's and Master's qualifications conducted in collaboration with prestigious Australian and United Kingdom universities.

In connection with its 30th anniversary, KDU is offering a 30 per cent discount for all its diploma programmes for students meeting its entry requirements.

Raffles Design Institute's programmes provide over 32,000 students with quality design education and hands-on learning experience.

Courses include Fashion Design, Fashion Marketing, Graphic Design, Multimedia Design, Interior Design, Product Design, Jewellery Design and Business.

Raffles has three universities and 33 colleges across 13 countries in the Asia-Pacific region.

Studying at Inti International University or Inti International Colleges brings benefits from the strength of the Laureate International Universities network – the largest and fastest growing global network of private universities which boasts former US President Bill Clinton as honorary chancellor.

Inti offers world-class accessible and affordable courses such as Engineering, Business, Health Sciences, Mass Communication, Law, Hospitality, Computing, Art and Design, Biotechnology and Life Sciences to the American University Programme.

Students with monthly family incomes of less than RM6,000 can apply for Edu-Assist, where programmes are discounted between 20 and 30 per cent.

The One Academy is internationally renowned for nurturing talents at the pinnacle of creativity through courses such as Diploma in Advertising and Graphic Design, Digital Animation with Game Development, Fashion Design and Pattern Making, Multimedia Design with New Media Studies, Illustration with Comics and Entertainment Art, Interior Design and Fine Arts.

It also offers the Bachelor of Arts (BA) - Hons in Interactive Media Design, BA - Hons in Graphic Design and BA - Hons in Interior Architecture and Design.

For over 40 years, Taylor's College has been a centre of excellence in Pre-University studies, placing students into top universities globally. Its Cambridge A Level, South Australian Matriculation and Canadian Pre-University centres are the biggest in Malaysia.

UCSI University is a leading institution of higher learning with campuses in Kuala Lumpur, Terengganu and Sarawak where faculties are equipped with state-of-the-art facilities for programmes such as Medicine, Pharmacy, Nursing, Engineering and Architecture, Music, Multimedia, Education, Liberal Arts and Hospitality.

Its students benefit from the Co-Operative Education Training Programme (Co-Op) that enhances their employability by integrating classroom learning with workplace training in Co-Op employer organisations.

Fajar International College is the first accredited National Examination Board in Occupational Safety and Health (Nebosh) training centre for courses in East Malaysia.

Its Diploma in Occupational Health and Safety intake is in August and the college also provides National Higher Education Fund Corporation (PTPTN) loan and installment schemes.

Located in Miri, the college offers the Diploma in Accounting, Diploma in Human Resource Management, Diploma in Business and Bachelor of Business Administration.

Nilai University in Negeri Sembilan offers affordable fees and international collaboration with top ranking universities overseas.

Courses range from Hospitality and Tourism, Business, Allied Health Sciences, Engineering, Foundation and Social Sciences, and is known for its Diploma in Aircraft Maintenance Engineering.

Nilai currently offers a Financial Aid Scheme for students with a family income of less than RM4,000, where they need only pay the RM650 registration fee and the rest would be covered by a PTPTN loan.

Students are advised to bring along their academic results.

For details, call education consultants Crystal Voon or Ing Hui at 085-438830.

CT Academic has helped over 5,000 students with their tertiary study plans at local and overseas universities.