UCSI Students Glam Up

Students from UCSI University's De Institute of Art & Design (DIAND) impressed many in the local world of fashion with their elegant evening concoctions.

They were invited by My Wedding – a well-known Malaysian wedding magazine – to participate in its ninth annual wedding exhibition at MidValley Megamall.

The event was an ideal avenue for the students to showcase their creativity to an audience which included designers, makeup artists and respected names in the world of fashion.

The DIAND students offered intricate detailing on 20 elegant evening dresses, showed off by leggy models on the runway, which drew a loud round of applause.

Chief editor of My Wedding magazine, Lim Hooi Hia, heaped praise on the designs by UCSI students: "Overall, I can see much potential in the students. Some of the designs were very eye-catching and I hope to see more in the future."
