

UCSI University holding cooking competition today

KUCHING: UCSI University, Sarawak campus, is organising a two-day cooking competition in search for the next big chef at the Boulevard Shopping Mall at 10am today.

The competition is open to secondary school students and will be held in conjunction with the Commonwealth Education Carnival (CEC).

The final round of the competition will however be held on Oct 20.

Five secondary schools will take part in the competition and students will be competing pairs and is required to prepare Korean cuisine.

Judging will be conducted by professional chefs and culinary teachers.

CEC is organised by UCSI Communications Sdn Bhd.

Among the exhibitors will be KDU College, Penang, Masterskill Global College, University College of Technology Sarawak, Sidma College Sarawak, Aerotech Training Centre and UCSI University, Sarawak campus.