

Good response to 'Jom Masuk U' Education Fair

BY JOSEPHINE ENJANE BALI

BINTULU: Twenty three private bodies took part in the "Jom Masuk U" Education Fair organised by the Guidance and Counselling Unit of SMK Bintulu yesterday.

The private bodies included Global Education Services (M) Sdn Bhd, Market Management Services Sdn Bhd, Uni of Saunthampton Malaysia, University College Sedaya International (UCSI), Technology College of Sarawak, IBS College, Sunway College Kuching and Fajar International College.

The fair took place at Cenderawasih Hall of the school from 7.30am till 12.30pm.

According to Organising Chairlady and Counselling Teacher of the school, Siti Rohani Harun, the event aimed to expose the students to private institutions of higher learning that offered various courses for the school leavers.

She said the students were encouraged to find out about education loans or scholarships for high achievers. STPM and STM students who were not sure about what they wanted to do in life were also advised to talk to the Counselling Teachers.

TOP & RIGHT: Students gathering as much information as they can during the "Jom Masuk U" Education Fair.

