

UCSI organises creative arts competition for students

UCSI University is promoting the creative arts via a competition for students aged between 15 to 18.

The theme for this competition is "Love, Hope and Peace" and shortlisted participants will be able to show off their work during the opening weekend of the new Sunway Velocity Mall in Cheras, Kuala Lumpur.

The first step for interested participants is to download the template from UCSI's website at <http://www.ucsiuniversity.edu.my/creative-art-competition/index.aspx>.

Submissions must be made via post or email, and the closing date for the preliminary stage is Nov 25.

UCSI's panel of judges will shortlist the entries.

Students with the shortlisted entries will be invited to reproduce their designs on UCSI University's showcase booth at Sunway Velocity between Dec 5 and 11.

At this stage, the reproduction of the design on the booth's hoarding board can be done by teams of between two to five participants.

There are plenty of great prizes to be won. Aside from cash and vouchers, participants stand the chance to win a scholarship to study at UCSI University. The total worth of the prizes on offer exceed RM90,000.

For further details call 603-9101 8882.