The cast and production members of The Merchant of Venice.

KUALA LUMPUR: A modern take of Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice was staged by the students of University College Sedaya International (UCSI) recently.

Held at the university's auditorium, the show received a thunderous applause from the audience.

The main cast comprised Eunice Au as Shylock, Dwina S. Adinda (Antonio), Louis Lim (Lancelot), Carmen Chow (Portia) and Narvinder Jit Singh (Bassanio). It was directed by Mohd Nur Uzair, assisted by Yvonne Lee.

Proceeds of the ticket sales were donated to Pusat Kanak-kanak Istimewa Harmoni.

The theatre production was aimed to inspire appreciation and love for the arts and literature, and to challenge the students to produce a play independently.
